FORMER STUDENT KNIGHTED

9 JANUARY 2020

We were delighted to hear that former student, Steve McQueen, has been given a knighthood in the 2020 Queen's New Year Honours list for his service to both the art and film industries. The film director was a student at Drayton Manor from 1983 until 1988. In 2014 he became the first black director to win the Best Picture Award for 12 Years A Slave at the Oscars.

We would like to offer our congratulations to Steve on this fantastic achievement.
