

YEAR 10 & 11 COURSES

Subject: Religious Education (Compulsory – delivered through carousel)

Course Level: Ealing Agreed Syllabus for RE (Key Stage 4)

Examining Body: Non-examinable

What will I be studying? Through a series of extended case studies, students will explore ethical, philosophical and religious responses to the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Religion & relationships2. Women in religion3. Standing up to hate4. Religious attitudes to poverty5. Suffering and Evil	What skills will I develop? <ul style="list-style-type: none">• An enquiring approach to the study of religion and human experience• An understanding of how to put key concepts into religious and secular contexts• The ability to communicate, reflect on and evaluate values, opinions and attitudes to key issues• The ability to apply beliefs and values (secular & religious) to real-life situations
How will the course be structured? The course will be delivered within a carousel system, alongside IT and CCW. Year 10 <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Religion & Relationships• Women in religion Year 11 <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Standing up to hate• Religious attitudes to poverty	How will I be assessed? The course will be assessed internally, using existing Key Stage 4 criteria – with an emphasis on evaluative responses (AO2). Further information can be obtained by referring to the Ealing Agreed Syllabus for Religious Education, which is available online. There is no Controlled Assessment or Coursework for this Religious Education course.
Who should I speak to for further information? <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Your RE Teacher• Head of Religious Education – Mr Ohrey	