Session 1: Punctuality and Accountability

Ambition

Character

Civic virtue

Ensure you have read the student bulletin which includes:

- Room changes for today
 - Student notices
- Opportunities for you to sign up to!

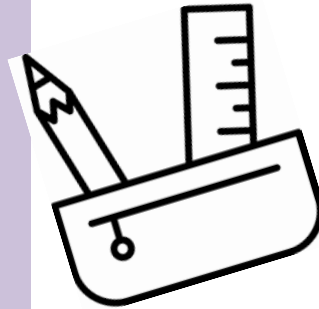

Session 1: Knowledge organiser checks and ready to learn expectations

Knowledge Organiser Checks

Your tutor will sign your planner for last week. Your parents and guardians must also sign your knowledge organiser each week.

If you do not have a knowledge organiser – you must pick up a knowledge organiser sheet from your tutor or student reception.

Lost knowledge organisers will be charged at £5 each!

WINNING TUTOR GROUPS GET TO CELEBRATE

Session 1: Book Pride

Keeping your exercise books neat, organised and tidy will ensure you are ready to learn and prepared.

Students have the remaining tutor time to follow the instructions below, and to ensure their exercise books are impeccable – showing excellent character:

1. Ensure all books have treasury tags in place (FYI, to support students in inserting treasury tags correctly, this video from 0.47 onwards provides a worked example!). There should be no loose work.
2. PLCS are tagged in properly and in use.
3. Plastic book covers are in use
4. Titles, classwork and the date are underlined for each lesson neatly.
5. Target Tracking sheets are filled in (KS4 only) and clearly visible.
6. Ensure any assessments are easy to find in your exercise book alongside feedback received.

Session 1: Your punctuality demonstrates good character...

- How does being punctual demonstrate good character?
