

DRAYTON MANOR HIGH SCHOOL

Year 10 Revision checklist: GCSE Sociology

The Sociological Approach	Learn	Revise	Do
Conflict vs. consensus theories
Norms, values, culture and socialisation
Social structures, processes and issues
The work of Marx, Weber and Durkheim
Families
Theories of the family: Functionalism, Marxism and Feminism
Families in a global context
The Rapoport and family diversity
Different family types
The functions of the family
Conjugal roles in the family
Ann Oakley: The conventional family
Changing relationships in the family: between couples, adults and children and with wider family
Wilmott and Young: Symmetrical families
Trends in divorce and consequences for society
Education
The role of education
Durkheim and Parsons: Functionalism and education
Different types of schools
Alternatives to education
Sociological theories of education: Marxism, Functionalism and Feminism
Bowles and Gintis: The Correspondence Principle
Halsey: Class based inequalities
Ball: Parental choice and competition
Factors affecting educational achievement
Ball: Teacher expectations
Willis: Counter-school subcultures
Interactionism: Labelling and the Self-Fulfilling Prophecy
Research Methods
Research design
Qualitative and Quantitative Methods (strengths and limitations)
Different types of data
Primary and secondary sources
Interpretation of data
Practical issues
Ethical issues			